

First Book Canada connects organizations that serve children and families with affordable books and free educational resources.

Whether you work in education, health care, or community services, you can help put more books and learning tools into the hands of children and young people who need them most.

Why Join?

Access to the Marketplace

Access a wide selection of brand-new books and educational resources at deeply discounted prices to support your classroom, community space, mini library, or clinic.

Special Funding Opportunities

We partner with donors to offer funding opportunities to our network. Watch for emails with promo codes, grants offers, and opportunities to bring more books into your community.

Free Educational Resources

The First Book Canada Accelerator offers free, easy-to-use tools on topics like changemaking and mental health to help you support the children and families you serve.
