

Make a pair of homemade dice and practice your letter sounds with a game of Pickles & Ladders.

Say the sounds you land on out loud. If you get it right you stay, if you are incorrect you must move back to your original spot.

Alternatives

1. If you do not have glue, use tape
2. If you only have scissors, cut out each dotted square and choose randomly from a cup
3. If you do not have scissors, tape, or glue write numbers 1 to 6 on separate pieces of paper, and choose randomly from a cup to play the game(s).

Step 1 Cut along the bold [orange] lines to cut out entire game die with tabs, then flip over cut out, with dots faced down

Step 2 Fold along all dotted lines and fold coloured [lettered] tabs toward you

Step 3 Glue & paste red [A] tab to the back edge of side #3

Step 4 Glue & paste yellow [B] tab to the back edge of side #5

Step 5 Glue & paste blue [C] tab to the back edge of side #3

Step 6 Glue & paste green [D] tab to the back edge of side #5

Final Step 7 1. Glue & paste both grey [E] tabs to the back of side #4 2. Glue & paste purple [F] tab to the back edge of side #1 - to close the box

DIRECTIONS: Take turns rolling the die, and moving your marker that corresponding number of spaces. Say the sound of the letter you land on. If you are correct, you may stay. If you are incorrect, you must move back to your original spot. If you land on a ladder, you may climb up the ladder. But beware! If you land on a pickle, you must slide down the pickle. The first one to the End is the winner!
